My Fortress

I have so many resources and habilities, especially, the quick and adequate solution to problems.

The experience with persons groups, in limit situations, knowing all the aspects of life in Patagonia, is the principal support of my work, with a special affinity with senior travelers.

Wide know in American and Patagonian cultures, and capacity for navigation.

I think what the communication is the must important element inside the relationsl between the travelers and the company. This will get clear, direct and simple.
